OR

Explain the incident that forced Satish to stay back at home. How did it affect his formal education?

Answer:

To express their discontent with Columbus, the crew members turned rebellious against him. Initially they appealed him to turn Santa Maria towards Spain at once as they wished to be at their homes with their families. (They didn't want to listen, to Columbus' words of finding a new world. Actually Columbus had faith in God. He knew that someday or the other, he would come out of the problem facing them but the crewmen had lost all hope. They had become pessimists and always sang. But their appeal to him was in vain. Being desperate and pessimists, the seamen, drank too much. Guillermo called him a devil and said, "Santa Maria will be lighter for his carcass." Frustrated Diego compared seamen to bats flying by day. Francisco refused to bring Guillermo. The crewmen had lost all hope and behaved rudely. Then all of them revolted and said angry words to him. They rushed towards him in angry mass and tried to kill him.

OR

Satish went to Kashmir during his holidays. One day, he went hiking with his father and brother Inder. They were crossing a weak bridge over some dangerous part of a river. Satish stood at one point and started looking at the swirling water below them. Just then, his foot slipped and he lost his balance. As a result he fell into the rapids. He was injured badly with his head, heart and legs fractured. After many operations, he suffered from bouts of fever and infections. All that led to hearing impairment. Due to frequent absence and hearing problem, the school he was attending informed his father that they could not keep Satish. Other schools refused admission

17. Describe in your own words how the poet's grandma was a genuine and how she upheld her right to reside in a tree.'

OR

The physical appearance of the Jazz player does not match when he plays on his Saxophone Explain.

Answer:

The poet Ruskin Bond calls his grandmother as 'Genius' as she could climb trees even at the age of 62. She was passionate to climb a tree. She could climb any type of tree may it be spreaded or high. Everybody feared that granny would fall from a tree one day. Despite being advised to stop that practice, she would not stop. Once it so happened that she climbed a tree but couldn't come down. After the rescue, the doctor recommended rest for a week. But for granny it was like a brief season in hell. She demanded a house to be built on a tree. The poet's father who was dutiful, fulfilled his mother's will, so that granny could shift and live in a tree house, upholding her right to live in a tree.'

OR

The Jazz player has a pathetic appearance. He has a wrinkled face and closed eyes full of worries. His collar frayed faded blue old shirt turned dark with sweat. Old necktie is undone and drops, old jacket is holding his sagging stomach. He had rundown shoes having paper in them. His unshaven face shows pain. There lies an old saxophone across his chest. The Jazz player is a poor man. He cannot afford to buy new shoes so he wears old shoes in which he has stuffed paper in order to feel comfortable. His face is full of wrinkles and is unshaven. The Jazz player is proud of his race. He is proud to be a Black man. Though, into the beginning of the poem the Jazz player is shown to be a poor man who is full of worries and pain. But later, when we see him playing saxophone, we realize that he is a man who knows that he has been sent into this world to preach, to give a religious message. He is to preach the Black Gospel of Jazz. He begins to preach through the music coming from the saxophone and feels that he is not a black man but a bird which flies higher and higher with the music and its notes. But once the music is over, he is back to reality and feels that he is the same black man again, back to his poor life.

Dear Radha,

Hope this letter finds you in great health and spirit. I am writing this letter to you to invite you to our house to spend summer vacation. Though it is your grandmother's house, but you are more than a cousin to me. You know Shimla is famous for its scenery and snow fall. Also weather around Kufri is romantic and exciting. You'll be awe-struck by the breath-taking beauty of nature, scattered all around. Moreover, the Nalder Golf Course, Jakhu Temple and Advanced Studies Institute are places worth seeing. Your company will be beneficial to me in studies also as I have to prepare maths assignments. I know you are very good at maths. I am sure, you are also eager to visit our place with your parents — my loving uncle and aunt. Looking forward to your visit.

Yours lovingly

Subject: Problem of dumped garbage

Sir,

Through this letter of mine I would like to draw your attention towards the problem of garbage, dumped here and there in our locality. But instead of using dustbins, people used to dump it here and there on the road. Our locality has become a breeding place of flies, mosquitoes and other insects. Moreover, foul smell, emitting out of the garbage has made our life a hell. It is an open invitation to epidemics like dengue, malaria, cholera etc. On behalf of the residents of our locality, it is my earnest request that dustbins, separately for dry and wet garbage, should be allotted in our area to avoid terrible outbreak of diseases. Regular visits of sanitary inspectors should be followed to check the situation.

I hope you will look into the matter as soon as possible.

Yours sincerely

Rama.
